NOTICE

Dissolution or legal separation may automatically cancel the rights of a spouse or domestic partner under the other spouse's or domestic partner's will, trust, retirement plan, power of attorney, pay-on-death bank account, transfer-on-death vehicle registration, survivorship rights to any property owned in joint tenancy, and any other similar thing. It does not automatically cancel the rights of a spouse or domestic partner as beneficiary of the other spouse's or domestic partner's life insurance policy. You should review these matters, as well as any credit cards, other credit accounts, insurance policies, retirement plans, and credit reports, to determine whether they should be changed or whether you should take any other actions.

A debt or obligation may be assigned to one party as part of the dissolution of property and debts, but if that party does not pay the debt or obligation, the creditor may be able to collect from the other party.

An earnings assignment may be issued without additional proof if child, family, partner, or spousal support is ordered.

Any party required to pay support must pay interest on overdue amounts at the "legal rate," which is currently 10 percent.

ATTACHMENT TO JUDGMENT
OF DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE

8 The Court finds that the parties and his/her respective counsel acknowledge that they 9 have concurrently executed a Further Judgment effective July 26, 2007, which contains the 10 executory provisions of the agreement reached between the parties. The Court further finds 11 that pursuant to the agreement of the parties:

12 A. This Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage contains no executory or other 13 provisions of said Further Judgment;

14 B. Said Further Judgment has been executed in duplicate and either party may, 15 subject to the notice provisions hereof, file said Further Judgment at any time that such party 16 believes that the filing of same is reasonably necessary to obtain compliance with any 17 provision of said Further Judgment or to enforce any executory term contained therein or is 18 otherwise reasonably necessary. Notwithstanding the foregoing, said Further Judgment shall 19 not be filed with the Court unless the party intending to file same: (1) provides the other 20 party with ten (10) business days advance written notice identifying the alleged breach, 21 requested modification or other reason for filing the Further Judgment in order to allow 22 him/her time to rectify the breach and to comply with the terms of the Further Judgment, or 23 otherwise resolve the dispute; (2) such breach has not been cured or other issue not resolved 24 within said ten (10) business day period, or (3) either party files an ex parte application on an 25 emergency matter under California Rules of Court, Rules, 3.1200 et. seq.

26 1. In the event that Petitioner or Respondent intends to file the Further Judgment
27 and/or information contained therein with the Court for a regularly noticed hearing, then 28 Counsel for Petitioner or Counsel for Respondent shall provide the other with written

1 notification of such intent not less than ten (10) court days prior to filing the Further 2 Judgment with the Court. The written notification shall contain the identification of the 3 information contained in the Further Judgment that will be filed with the Court.

4 2. The party given written notification of the other party's intent to file the Further 5 Judgment and/or information contained therein, with the court as provided in paragraph 6 hereinabove, shall have five (5) court days after receipt of the required notice within which to 7 apply ex parte for an order requiring that the Further Judgment and/or information therein, be 8 filed under seal pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 2.551. Any party making such 9 an ex parte application shall comply with California Rules of Court, Rules 3.1200 through 10 3.1207. If no ex parte application is made, or the Court does not require any sealing, the 11 notifying party may file or otherwise submit the Further Judgment or identified information 12 therein without sealing.

13 3. In the event that Petitioner or Respondent intends to file the Further Judgment
14 or any information therein with the Court on an ex parte basis, then counsel for Petitioner or 15 counsel for Respondent shall provide the other with written notification on or before 16 10:00 a.m. the day prior to the ex parte appearance in which Confidential Information will be 17 filed with the Court. The party bringing the ex parte shall cause the ex parte documents to be 18 filed with the Court under seal with the cover page of the ex parte application attached to a 19 sealed envelope and the envelope clearly marked with the case name and number and 20 identified as confidential filed under seal, until the other party has had the opportunity to 21 request that the Court allow the Further Judgment and/or the information contained therein to 22 be redacted from the ex parte application or that the ex parte application be sealed. The 23 ex parte application shall remain sealed along with the responsive papers until such time as 24 the Court makes its orders regarding the redacting or sealing of the Further Judgment and/or 25 the information contained therein. The written notification shall contain the identification of 26 the information contained in the Further Judgment that will be filed with the Court.
